Milan, Octob. 17. N. S.

ON the Thirteenth Inſtant, in the Evening, his Catholick Majeſty arriv'd at this Place, and was receiv'd with a triple Diſcharge of our Cannon, and the general Acclamations of all the People, who were aſſembled in an extraordinary manner on this Occaſion. His Majeſty was met by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Savoy, at a Place call'd la Cava, on the Road leading from Genoa to this City. After a ſhort Conference between thoſe two Princes, wherein they made to each other the moſt ſolemn Profeſſions of an extraordinary Affection and Eſteem, they ſeparated; His Majeſty continuing his Journey to Pavia, where he Din'd, and the Duke of Savoy returning to Turin. On the Fourteenth, his Majeſty went on Foot to our Cathedral-Church, where he was receiv'd by the Cardinal our Archbiſhop, at the Head of the Clergy, who conducted him to the High-Altar; after which, Te Deum was ſung for his Majeſty's ſafe Arrival at this Place. On the Sixteenth, in the Morning, an Expreſs came hither from Frankfort, with the acceptable News of his Majeſty's Promotion to the Empire; whereupon he has been Complimented by our Magiſtrates and the Nobility, as well as by all the Strangers of Diſtinction, of whom there is at preſent a numerous Concourſe in this City. The Emperor has appointed the Count Uberto Stampa to carry the News of his Election to the Court at Barcelona. His Majeſty propoſeth to reſide here till towards the End of this Month; at which time he will proceed to Inſpruck, and from thence to Frankfort, in order to receive the Imperial Crown at that Place. They write from Rome, That the Pope continues highly incenſed againſt Signior Molinos, on account of his late Conduct, notwithſtanding all the Endeavours of the Cardinal de la Tremouille; who, in a late Conference on the Tenth Inſtant, pleaded much in his behalf. This Inflexibility in the Pope, is chiefly attributed to the great Indifference Signior Molinos ſhews on this Occaſion: for tho' the Pope has forbidden him to ſay Maſs, and given ſeveral other Inſtances of his Diſpleaſure, he has made no ſteps towards a Submiſſion, but continues to juſtify his own Behaviour, and depend on his Maſter the Duke of Anjou's Protection.

Coire, Octob. 20. N. S. Mr. Maſner's Friends have complain'd, that the late Tribunal at Ilantz acted with more Severity againſt him than his Caſe requir'd; notwithſtanding which, we are told that the French Ambaſſador ſeems diſſatisfied at their Proceedings in that Affair, declaring, that he only deſired the Puniſhment of his Perſon, which they have ſuffer'd to eſcape, and not the Confiſcation of his Eſtate, and Ruin of his Family. As the Proceſs form'd againſt him has been Printed by Order of the late Tribunal, Mr. Maſner is ſolliciting the Univerſity of Tubingen in Suabia to declare that it is faulty, and without due Proofs in ev'ry Particular. His Lady is likewiſe gone to Milan, in order to throw herſelf at his Catholick Majeſty's Feet upon his Arrival at that Place, and implore his Protection. On the other hand we hear, that General Buol, Colonel of the Griſon Regiment in the Dutchy of Milan, has receiv'd Orders from this Government to repreſent to his Majeſty the State of the Caſe, and their Reaſons for proceeding in the Manner they have done againſt Mr. Maſner. The Baron de Greuth, the Imperial Envoy to this State, having been abſent about four Months, return'd hither ſome time ſince from Vienna. Notwithſtanding it was lately thought that Monſieur de Salis, Envoy from this Place to the States-General, wou'd be recall'd home, we are now aſſur'd that he is to continue ſome time longer at the Hague.

Bruſſels, Oct. 29. N. S. On the Twenty-ſeventh Inſtant the Pruſſian Forces, conſiſting of eleven Regiments of Horſe, and fifteen Battalions, march'd through this Place in their way to the Winter-Quarters that have been aſſign'd them between the Meuſe and the Rhine. They write from Liſle, that the Prince of Holſtein-Beck, Governour of that Place, return'd hither on Sunday laſt from Aix la Chapelle. Part of the Garriſon belonging to Liſle are already arriv'd, the reſt being this Day expected, together with a large Convoy of Forage and Ammunition from Ghent. Theſe Letters add, that on the Twenty-ſeventh the Duke of Wirtemberg made a Forage in the Neighbourhood of Ipres, without receiving any Diſturbance from the Enemy. The ſame Evening the Deputies of the States-General arriv'd there from the Army; and it is expected that the Magiſtracy of Liſle will be renew'd on Monday or Tueſday next by thoſe Miniſters.

Falmouth, Octob. 27. Yeſterday arriv'd the Sarah-Gally, of and for London from Jamaica in eight Weeks, Paul Surrel, Maſter.

Falmouth, Octob. 29. Yeſterday ſail'd the David and Joſeph, of and for London from Virginia, without Convoy, William Arnold, Maſter.

Dartmouth, Octob. 30. A Dutch Convoy being in Torbay with ſeveral Merchant-Ships bound for Holland, the Elizabeth, Good-luck (Captain Hammill) which was re-taken ſome time ſince by a Dutch Privateer, and brought into this Harbour laden with Sugar from the Weſt-Indies, and now clear, ſail'd out of this Port, and is gone for Torbay, to join the Convoy bound for
